

Privacy Policy

Last Updated: [3/31/2025]

Effective Date: 4/1/2025

Your privacy is important to us. This Privacy Policy outlines how Project 4031 collects, uses, and protects your information when you visit our website www.project4031.org.

1. Information We Collect

We collect the following types of information:

- Personal Identification Information: When you visit our site, sign up for an account, make a purchase, or contact us, we may collect personal information such as your name, email address, phone number, and payment details.
- Non-Personal Identification Information: We may collect non-personal information such as your browser type, device type, IP address, and how you interact with the Site, using cookies and other tracking technologies.

2. How We Use Your Information

We use the information we collect for the following purposes:

- To provide and improve our services and user experience.
- To communicate with you, including responding to inquiries or sending order updates.
- To process payments and fulfill orders.
- To analyze website usage trends and improve our marketing strategies.
- To comply with legal obligations or resolve disputes.

3. How We Protect Your Information

We take the security of your personal information seriously and implement reasonable security measures to protect your data. However, please note that no method of data transmission over the internet is completely secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute security. Should we add any language about payment information for online donations? ex: We utilize secure, PCI-compliant payment processors and do not store payment information.

4. Cookies

Our site uses cookies to enhance your user experience. Cookies are small files stored on your device that help us improve your browsing experience. You can manage your cookie preferences through your browser settings.

5. Third-Party Services

We may use third-party services, such as payment processors or analytics tools, to enhance our website's functionality. These third parties may collect and process your personal data as outlined in their own privacy policies.

6. Data Sharing and Disclosure

We do not sell or rent your personal information to third parties. We may share your information with trusted third-party service providers to fulfill services on our behalf, such as payment processing or email communication. We may also disclose information when required by law or to protect our rights.

7. Your Data Protection Rights

Depending on your location, you may have certain rights regarding your personal data. These include the right to:

- Access the personal data we hold about you.
- Request correction or deletion of your personal data.
- Object to or restrict the processing of your personal data.

To exercise any of these rights, please contact us at Kristina Robertson krobertson@project4031.org.

8. Children's Privacy

Our services are not intended for children under the age of 13. We do not knowingly collect personal data from children. If we become aware that we have inadvertently collected such data, we will take steps to delete it.

9. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes will be posted on this page, with an updated "Last Updated" date at the top. Please review this policy periodically to stay informed about how we are protecting your information.
